

DISENSHIFY OR DIE!

How to Seize the Means of Computation and Build a New, Good Internet
That is Hardened Against Tech Oligarchs' Insatiable Appetite for Coercing and Exploiting People

Thursday, Feb. 27

6 p.m.

Kern Auditorium (112 Kern Building)

Featuring Cory Doctorow

Electronic Frontier Foundation

CORY DOCTOROW is a science fiction author, activist and journalist. He is the author of many books, most recently "Picks and Shovels" and "The Lost Cause," a solarpunk science fiction novel of hope amidst the climate emergency. His most recent nonfiction books include "The Internet Con: How to Seize the Means of Computation," a Big Tech disassembly manual, and "Chokepoint Capitalism," about monopoly platforms and creative labor markets. He coined the term "enshittification," to describe the decay of online platforms. The word was named Word of the Year by the American Dialect Society, the Macquarrie Dictionary and the New Scientist. He works for the Electronic Frontier Foundation, and serves as a MIT Media Lab research affiliate, a visiting professor of computer science at Open University, a visiting professor of practice at the University of North Carolina's School of Library and Information Science, and he co-founded the UK Open Rights Group.

Doctorow will sign books outside the auditorium (Barnes and Noble will be on site with a selection of Doctorow's recent titles)
